

Biography - Dr. Kendra A. Momon

Dr. Kendra A. Momon is a pastor, associate provost, prolific writer, an accomplished speaker, and co-founder of Momon Leadership - a leadership and people development consultancy based in Atlanta, GA.

She has authored two books - African American Politics (2010) and Being As Leading: Your Roadmap to Shaping Culture Through Life's Disruptions (2020), written over two dozen articles, and has been featured on the cover of numerous Christian magazines. She is also widely recognized as an expert on the life, leadership, and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and is trained in Kingian nonviolence and reconciliation.

A political commentator and widely sought after subject matter expert, Dr. Momon's voice and perspective has been shared in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The LA Times, and the Atlanta Journal and Constitution as well as CNN, CNN International, NPR, Newsy, and Political Rewind.

Since 2018, she has co-led with her husband and best friend Andrew (Mo) as campus pastors of Victory Church - Midtown Campus. Victory Midtown, is a 2,000 plus member multigenerational and multicultural church in the heart of Atlanta with a vision to be a house of prayer who fulfills Acts 1:8 by making disciples of Jesus Christ by building families, transforming communities, reconciling cultures, and impacting nations.

An admitted sneaker head, in her down time, she loves spending quality time with her family, mentoring young women, and cheffing it up.